The club aims to ensure that all people irrespective of age, gender, ability, race, religion, ethnic origin, creed, colour, nationality, social status or sexual orientation have a genuine and equal opportunity to participate in rugby union at all levels and in all roles. That is, as a beginner, participant or player, or as a coach, official, referee, manager, administrator or spectator.

It is the aim of the club in its relationships with its members and participants, and in the provision of its services, not to disadvantage any individual by imposing any conditions or requirements which cannot be justified.

All club members have a responsibility to oppose discriminatory behaviour and promote equal opportunity. The club will deal with any incidence of discrimination seriously, according to its disciplinary procedures.
